

David W. Sexton

- Carpenter by trade
- taught 6th Grade English in Schools in Indiana before coming to Utah
- square dance caller, danced jigs, member of a Glee Club, could play many musical instruments, sang at funerals and church functions alone and with wife Rhoda C.

After coming to Utah he build mill(?) for making woven wire fencing which was used widely in Wasatch County. He never had it patented.

After 37 years in Utah took trip to Indiana with 2 daughters and son-in-law, (Gertrude Murdock, Joe and Josie Murdock) in 1941. Family members there had reunion for him.

Rhoda L. Chandler Sexton (1) David Wilborn Sexton (2) Willard Milton Pilt Murdock
Came with Husband David D Sexton to Utah as a convert to LDS Church. They brought their three children Everett, Emmitt and Myrtle. Seven additional children were born to them at their home in Lake Creek, Utah (which still stands)

Emmitt had spinal meningitis as a child (which may or may not have ~~been~~ caused the loss of eyesight in one eye). The sickness left him not strong. He never married and eventually died of kidney failure.

At this time Josie Murdock, Ray Sexton, Edna Allen and Grace Pope are still living. Rhoda and David divorced; she married Willard Milton (Pilt) Murdock
